Questions to dig deeper into this week's topic

OUR FATHER

SEPTEMBER 21, 2025 | CHANGING RELATIONS

1. What is the most fun age to be? What is the best age for your kids to be?
2. It's natural to see God as static, and He IS unchanging in His nature (Malachi 3:6, James 1:17), but how might it grow our understanding of Him and the Bible if we look at things through the framework that God has been adapting His parenting style as humanity grows?
3. Read Hebrews 1:1-3 and John 14:19-29, 16:7. How is God relating with His children in new ways in the New Testament era? What's staying the same?
4. If one Christian views believing in Jesus as the end goal of a relationship with God, and one Christian views believing in Jesus as the beginning of a relational journey with God, how might their two lives look differently?
5. Reflect: do you currently feel like your relationship with God has velocity, or has the momentum been stalling? How can you cultivate an openness and an imagination for what God might have in store for you next?
